

The University of Sydney

End of Life Research.

This Master Class will provide doctoral candidates in the Faculty of Education and Social Work with the opportunity to present and discuss their research with colleagues from the University of Warwick.

It will provide an opportunity for social work and social policy practitioners and researchers working in the field of end-of-life to discuss with Suzy Croft, a leading English practitioner researcher, the findings of a major research project investigating specialist palliative care social work in England.

The Master Class will be delivered via a live web-link between the University of Sydney and the University of Warwick

International Master Class

Tuesday 23 October 6-9pm

META Centre
Brennan Building
Room 215

Participants from The University of Warwick include:

- Professor Paul Bywaters, Emeritus Professor of Social Work, Coventry University, Honorary Professor of Social Work, University of Warwick and Founding Convenor, Social Work Health Inequalities Network
- Associate Professor Eileen McLeod, Associate Professor in Social Work, University of Warwick
- Suzy Croft, social worker, St John's Hospice, North London

Participants from The University of Sydney include:

- Professor Barbara Fawcett, Professor of Social Work
- Dr Lindsey Napier (Convenor of the postgraduate programme on dying, death and palliative care)
- Jenny Broadbent, DSW candidate
- Matra Robertson, PhD candidate
- Patricia Collins, DSW candidate

FACULTY OF
EDUCATION AND
SOCIAL WORK

RSVP to Raen Fraser by 5pm
Tuesday 16th October 2007

Email: rfraser@mail.usyd.edu.au
Phone: 02 935 15989